$3,000 POLICY

On Life of Towboat Sam Brown's Captain Blown Out of His Pocket Onto Shore.

Accidents have taken queer forms, but the trick of Kismet, circumstance, or whatever it may be best called, which destroyed the life of Captain L. C. Blair of the towboat Sam Brown, last week, removed a $3,000 life insurance policy from the captain's pocket and blew it high and dry on the shore of the river hundreds of feet from the scene of the tragedy.

The policy, supposed by his relatives to have been lost or at the bottom of the river with the captain's body, was found by Charles Henson, a tenant on the farm of Dr. H. A. Brandebury near Chesapeake. Henson took the policy to the store of Gillen & Hicks at Chesapeake, and it will soon be restored to the relatives of the unfortunate riverman.

Friends of Captain Blair, whose home was at Pittsburg, declare that he always carried the insurance policy in his pocket. The force of the explosion evidently tore away a part of Captain Blair's clothing and carried the policy ashore.

The papers were practically undamaged and had not been in the water, according to the finder.

DEATH OF MRS. C. F. GALBREATH.

Word was received here Thursday of the death of Mrs. C. F. Galbreath, aged 37 years, at her home at South Lebanon, O., which occurred Wednesday night. The remains will be brought here and the funeral held at 11 o'clock Saturday morning at the home of Mr. E. L. Manchester, 438 Forest avenue. Interment in the Maysville cemetery.

Mrs. Galbreath is survived by her husband, Mr. Clarence Galbreath, mother, Mrs. Annie Redden of East Second street; two sisters, Mrs. E. L. Manchester of Forest avenue, and Mrs. J. K. Roberts of Beattyville, Ky., and one brother, Mr. R. F. Redden of Richmond, Ky.

Mrs. Galbreath will be pleasantly remembered as Miss Anna Laurie Redden, one of the most delightful young ladies of this city, and her many friends were shocked to hear the sad news of her sudden death.

NOTICE, SUNDAY SCHOOL WORKERS.

There will be a meeting of the City Sunday School Association this evening at 7:30 o'clock. The members of the executive board, city superintendents and all others interested in the Sunday school work are urged to be present as plans will be discussed for the observing of "Go-To-Sunday-School" Day.

KEEPING STEP IN THE MARCH OF PROGRESS.

We understand our hustling citizen, Mr. Sam Middleman, has given his order to Mike Brown for a two-ton Reo truck to be delivered this coming week. We're for you, Sam. That's what helps make our town come to the front. It looks as though our people are realizing more and more the wonderful efficiency of the motor truck.

The Mason County Woman Suffrage League will meet this afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Public Library. Please be prompt.

CHARITY REWARDED

Mr. J. Harbour Russell Buys Bale of Cotton To Help the Southern Farmers in Time of Distress and Gets Handsome Return.

"Cast your bread upon the waters and after many days it will return."

At the outbreak of the great war when the farmers of the south were having a hard time to market their chief commodity—cotton—Mr. J. Harbour Russell, one of Maysville's public spirited citizens, went to the relief of those in distress and purchased a bale of cotton for $50 through Mr. Joseph Evans, formerly of this city, and had the bale put in storage, expecting the storage charges to eat up the purchase.

When the purchase was made he received a letter of thanks from the owner thereof and felt amply repaid for his benefaction.

Several days ago he was informed by Mr. Evans that the bale was still being held subject to his orders there was a considerable demand for cotton at this time and that a purchaser could readily be found. Upon receipt of this advice his agents were informed to sell, if it were needed.

Imagine his surprise when he received a check this week for $63.62 after all expenses had been deducted for storage, etc., which he is proudly showing.

Mr. Russell feels very gratified to those who showed their appreciation in this manner and plans to use the profits for some charitable cause here in Maysville.

Mr. S. P. Browning also purchased a bale of cotton at the same time, but his investment did not prove quite as successful as did Mr. Russell's.

Truly doth charity have its own reward.

REVIVAL AT FIRST M. E. CHURCH, SOUTH.

The services at the First M. E. church, South, continue to grow in interest. The pastor preached from Acts 2:21, "Thou has neither past nor lot in this matter, for thy heart is not right in the sight of God." He laid great stress upon the last sentence, "for thy heart is not right in the sight of God." He spoke of the supremacy of the church, but above it and all others is the Christ. In seeking the approval of one's actions, the question is not what does your companions think, or what your pastor or the church thinks, but what does Jesus the Christ think. His appeal to the unsaved was very earnest.

These meetings are very interesting and large crowds are attending.

TO BUY TEMPLE

Masons of This City Have Under Consideration the Purchase of the Masonic Temple Building.

For some time past the large body of Masons of this city have been trying to get together for the purpose of purchasing either the handsome Masonic Temple building at the corner of Third and Market streets, or securing a suitable site and erecting a large building thereon.

It now looks as if the matter would certainly be decided, as committees have been appointed by Maysville Chapter No. 9, R. A. M., and Maysville Commandery No. 10, K. T., and on Monday night at the regular meeting of Maysville Lodge No. 52, F. & A. M., a committee will be selected to confer with the committees from the other Masonic lodges looking to the buying of a temple or the erection of one. Secret orders of Maysville are in a prosperous condition, as evidenced by the handsome homes owned by a least three of them, the two Odd-fellow lodges and the Knights of Pythias lodge, and the healthy condition of the Mason lodges of this city will surely enable them to either buy or build a home of their own, thus adding prestige to these already strong and growing lodges.

Nothing can be more desirable than a lodge owning its own building, and this move on the part of the Masons is a most commendable one and The Ledger hopes it will go through.

HERE'S THE MONEY

A Can of Cream On the Maysville Market Brought the Swell Figures of $9.02.

Thursday raw cream prices took an upward shoot on the floors of the loose cream warehouse of the Model Creamery on East Second street, and after the weigh-in, here's the result:

One can of cream.
Contained 28.20 butter fat.
At 32 cents per butter fat.
A check for $9.02.
This is the record around here for a can of cream. It was delivered to the creamery here from the farm of Dr. A. O. Taylor and Manager Dooley, supervisor of sales of the creamery, said it was the best can he ever saw and if all farmers would take pains to get their cream like this they would get $9.02.

Our price this week for butterfat, 32 cents Maysville. Bring it in any day, any time of the day, and receive your check promptly.

CHANGED TIMES IN THE MINING INDUSTRY.

The recently published report of the Secretary of the Interior shows what a revolution has occurred in the mining industry. Now the total annual output of our mines is two and a half billions of dollars. In the mining states of the west, there was an increase of $130,000,000 in the product of the past year over the previous one. Mining has become an affair of great corporations and vast promotions, and the small mine and the individual prospector are scarcely in it.

Many millions of dollars are annually lost in the mine business because investors do not realize how thoroughly the day of small things has gone by. In every state of the Union there are indications of the precious metals. From time immemorial enthusiastic promoters have been selling mining stock on these seemingly fair hopes.

They get a few good looking specimens, have them assayed and produce an expert's report showing the value of this material. They put a few glistening specimens in their pockets, and talk learnedly of smelters and veins. It is astonishing how the mere sight of a sparkling piece of ore will lure on hard headed business men who couldn't possibly be fooled in their own line of business.

Mining crazes sweep over whole communities and the inhabitants pay fancy prices for land that will never be valuable for anything but timber and pasturage. The plant which his necessary to get the material out profitably may cost as much as the entire amount of ore that could be found.

All over the country are little mining plans going to rust and decay because capital enough could not be found to put the proposition on a working basis. It is also estimated that for every dollar taken out by mines, two dollars are put into worthless or hopeless prospects or into non-paying propositions.

THE WORLD ON FIRE.

President Wilson has aptly stated the case. The world is on fire and the conflagration increases rather than diminishes.

With this fact staring us plainly in the face, one is forced to give serious consideration to the subject of national defense. To do otherwise would be like leaving one's wife and babies at the mercy of a bloodthirsty mob.

The American people do not want war, but there may come a time when it will be impossible for us to prevent war.

If such a time comes we should be prepared to meet it, and to meet it in a manner that will effectively expel the invader from our shores and insure us against all future invasions.

The President has hinted that there is danger of our being drawn into the present war.

We hope not, but if it is true that such danger really exists it is the duty of Congress to take immediate steps to place the country in a reasonable state of defense, and to do it without a lot of political wire pulling and filibustering.

If this country is in danger of invasion this is not the time for Senators and Congressmen to play politics or build political fences. Action is what we need, and quick action and to a definite purpose.

Congress has been fairly warned of the dangers ahead, and the man who trifles with the welfare of his country now will have a fearful bill to pay when the day of reckoning comes.

Give us more action and fewer words.

SKIMMING NEWSPAPERS.

Some interesting results are being reported of tests given college students about facts connected with the war in Europe. These tests generally relate to facts that every reader of the war news should be pretty familiar with. Yet the students seem able to answer scarcely half these questions. Many business men and others have tried their hand at them, and can answer even less.

This is the result of the common habit of merely reading headlines. Most persons will read thoroughly only what immediately affects them. The housewife reads the advertising, the business man reads the markets. Also almost every one reads the local news of their own locality.

But when it comes to following the news of the war, Congress, national politics, Mexico, etc., it is surprising how even intelligent people do skip over it. A hasty glance at the headlines, and opening paragraphs and they pass on to other things.

No doubt that is the result of the surfeit of reading offered in our modern life. But it is a wonderfully dramatic story that is being told today in the newspapers, and no one ever lived at a more thrilling period. Every word the newspapers print is worth attention.

Of course you are thoroughly posted on every angle of the European war. But who is the federal Secretary of State? Who is Chief Justice of the Supreme Court? Who are the majority and minority leaders in Congress? Who is Secretary of Agriculture? How many states are there in the Union? What was the last one to be admitted to statehood? Know your own country first!

Quite a bunch of newspapers are making a feature of publishing the news of the war "a year ago today." But the public is so blamed busy reading of the war today that it has no time to waste even on that of yesterday.

Here's another kick. President Wilson took a swing around the circle and every newspaper in the land whooped it up. We swing the circle every day and not even a jaybird chirps.

You can't get ahead of the small boy. One told us the other day that old men are like angle worms because the "chickens" get them both. And we couldn't do a thing but gulp.

If we can just shoo the other fellow off for twenty years or so perhaps by that time the Boy Scouts can solve the problem.

Mr. Brandeis is welcome to that seat on the Supreme Court bench. We have our hands full editing this rag.

"Swallowing his pride" is a painless performance with some people. Don't even scratch the sides going down.

February 11.

Samuel Thruston Ballard, Kentucky sociologist, who applies profit sharing in his flour mills and champions the cause of workmen, is 61 years old today. He was a member of the United States Commission on Industrial Relations, and wrote a supplementary report that attracted wide attention. Mr. Ballard urges a national minimum wage law, the establishment of labor committees in all big corporations, a uniform eight-hour day and better vocational training of children. He makes his findings from long experience, and careful study from the point of view of the practical sociologist. When he told the employers of the country that men will do more work and better work on an eight-hour basis than on twelve, he started a lot of thinking. Mr. Ballard was born in Louisville February 11, 1855. He was educated at Cornell, and with his brother established the Ballard flour mills at Louisville. He has been a leader in the movement for better roads, child welfare and labor legislation in Kentucky.

Alexander M. Dockery, Assistant Postmaster General, U. S. A., 71 years old today.

Thomas A. Edison, noted American inventor, 69 years old today.

Agnes C. Laut, prominent Canadian authoress, 45 years old today.

Dr. Washington Gladden, famous Ohio theologian, 80 years old today.

Rt. Rev. G. Mott Williams, Episcopal bishop of Marquette, 59 years old today.

Pu-Yi, deposed emperor of China, 16 years old today.

The first question when a baby comes to a home is, who does it look like? When it is impossible to tell the happy father that it looks like him, he is usually consoled by "anyway, it will grow to look like him."

ITEMS FROM ALL AROUND

Fine Tobacco Yield.

(Cadiz Record.)

E. D. Stallons, son of W. B. Stallons of near Kyle, has a most excellent yield of tobacco. He stripped some of his crop some time ago and six sticks of six plants each weighed twenty-eight pounds—twenty-five of leaf and three pounds of seconds.

Artery Severed.

(Providence Enterprise.)

To Ritchie Baynham happened a painful accident at his father's store Wednesday evening. James Crow, the negro porter, was whittling on a stick. Ritchie, not seeing the knife, grabbed him from behind, the left hand coming in contact with the sharp knife and severing an artery. The wound bled profusely until it was securely bound up by a physician.

Says He Caught Bugs.

(Pembroke Journal.)

Eugene Holmes has sued the city of Crofton and Marshall Wallace Meyers of that place for $1,000 damages. Holmes claims that he was arrested and placed in the Crofton jail, which was a filthy and infested with all kinds of vermin, to-wit, body lice, etc., and that he was put to great inconvenience by getting these upon him. He also says that the charge upon which he was arrested was dismissed.

Mules Dying In the South.

(Larue County Herald.)

Will Sprowls of near Buffalo, who took a carload of mules to Atlanta, Ga., a few days ago, says that mule buyers down there are losing heavily on account of so many of the animals dying from a disease supposed to be glanders. Mr. Sprowls sold a few over twenty head at an average of $130 and says that he just about broke even on them. He figured that it was better to sell without profit than to risk losing half his bunch. He is responsible for the statement that other mule buyers from Kentucky are losing heavily.

Two Hunter Stories.

(Lewisburg Leader.)

At Lyons and son Carl and a young Mr. Kenney had the misfortune to lose a fine coon dog one night this week. The dog found a coon up a large tree which was cut down at the expense of much labor. The coon ran out with the dog after it, and into the creek they went. The dog attacked the coon in the water but lost the fight and was drowned. The coon was captured, however, by the bold hunters.

Taughn Coursey went to his traps Wednesday morning and wasn't expecting to catch anything, he said, and sure enough he didn't, but as there was some kind of tracks in the snow he followed them and caught a fine coon in a hollow log and got an ax and chopped it out.

Chickens By the Thousand.

(Stanford Interior Journal.)

John O. Reid of north of town, on the Danville pike, has started breeding operations this season on a large scale. His incubators are loaded to 1,200 capacity and each week, beginning this week, Mr. Reid is taking off that many young chicks. Mr. Reid is breeding seventeen different varieties of poultry this season.

Young Tobacco Grower.

(Palmouth Outlook.)

Roy Wilson, the sprightly and industrious 12-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Wilson, of South Licking Valley, recently sold 250 pounds of tobacco on the local market at an average of $11.25 per hundred. Roy raised this tobacco with his own hands on one-fourth acre of land. He bids fair to become one of our future self-sufficient farmers.

Fish Liberated.

(Jessamine Journal.)

George M. Hill, special game warden, representing the Kentucky Game and Fish Commission, was here Monday and liberated 1,000 rainbow trout in Hickman creek, near Camp Nelson. These fish grow very fast and when grown weigh from five to six pounds. They are excellent fish and furnish almost as much sport as the brook bass. If dynamiters do not disturb them it is expected that the river and creek near that point will soon be a fine place to fish for this game fish.

Beats the Mountaineer.

(Cadiz Herald.)

A few days ago we saw in the papers that some man in Eastern Kentucky had killed and caught about eighty possums since last fall, but we have the man in Trigg county who has this mountaineer "beat a frazzel." Jim Bryant, who lives near Canton, since last fall has caught 138 possums, 5 coons and 4 skunks. His brother has also caught a lot, but Jim himself caught all of these. He found ready sale for the hides and as a result he has taken in quite a little sum during the past four months.

To Test Valuable Ore.

(Clay City Roads and Farms.)

J. M. Kennon has begun this week operation in his crystallized limestone quarry on Hardwick's creek. As was stated in a previous issue of this paper, this stone has a rich value and so far as could be detected from outside appearance was very extensive. At least a thorough test will be given the quarry this week, and if found to be what every outside indication warrants, the mining and hauling of this valuable stone to the railroad will be begun at once. This means employment for a number of men and teams, we are told.

CREATES STRENGTH FOR WEAK WOMEN

AND RUN-DOWN PEOPLE

Recommended by The Mother Superior, Rosary Hill Home

Hawthorne, N.Y. — "I have been at work among the sick and poor for nearly eighteen years, and whenever I have used Vinol for run-down, weak or emaciated patients they have been visibly benefited by it. One patient, a young woman, was so weak and ill she could hardly creep to my door for aid, and was leaning on a friend's arm. I supplied Vinol to her liberally, and in a month when she returned to thank me I hardly recognized her. She was strong, her color charming and her cheeks rounded out. These words are uttered from my heart, in order that more people may know about Vinol, as there is nothing makes me happier in the world than to relieve the sick." — Mother M. ALPHONSA LAVIBOR, O.S.D., Hawthorne, N.Y.

The reason Vinol builds up weak, run-down women so quickly is because it contains a delicious combination of the three most successful tonics, peptonate of iron to enrich and revitalize the blood, the strength-creating, body-building elements of fresh cod's livers without oil, and beef peptone.

OFFICIAL CALL

For Republican Ninth District Convention To Be Held In Mt. Sterling February 29.

Maysville, Ky., Jan. 19, 1916.
To the Republican Electors of the Ninth Congressional District of Kentucky:

Pursuant to a meeting of the Ninth Congressional Republican District Committee and the official call of the Republican State Central Committee, the Republican Ninth District Committee now directs that a district convention of delegated representatives of the Republican part of the above named district be held in the city of Mt. Sterling, at 10 o'clock a. m., standard time, on Tuesday, the 29th day of February, 1916, for the purpose of electing two district delegates and two alternate delegates to attend the National Convention of the Republican party to be held in Chicago, Ill., on Wednesday, the 7th day of June, 1916; also to elect a member of the State Central Committee, and for the nomination of one election to be voted for the next national election.

The delegates to said convention shall be elected by county mass conventions, to be held in the county seat of each county in said district, at 1 o'clock p. m., standard time, on Saturday, February 26th, 1916, except in the county of Boyd, in which said county, the convention shall be held in the city of Ashland.

One delegate shall be elected for each one hundred votes or fraction thereof amounting to fifty or over, cast for the Republican candidates for electors in each county at the Presidential election in 1908. The counties in said district are entitled to representation as follows:

Bath 15, Boyd 23, Bracken 11, Breathitt 16, Carter 26, Elliott 6, Fleming 20, Greenup 21, Harrison 16, Lawrence 21, Lewis 25, Mason 21, Menefee 5, Montgomery 13, Morgan 14, Nicholas 11, Robertson 4, Rowan 10, Wolf 8. Total 292.

F. H. McCARTNEY, Chairman.
CLARENCE MATTHEWS, Secretary.

SOUTHERN DRUG MERCHANT MAKES UNUSUAL STATEMENT

Great Business Losses Due to Neglect

W. WITHERS MILLER

President of the Polk-Miller Drug Company, Richmond, Va., is authority for the following extraordinary statement:

"I estimate that the business men of this country could increase their efficiency fully ten per cent by taking an occasional laxative and not neglecting the bowels as most of them do."

He also said that if the Department of Commerce in Washington would present each business man in the country with a box of Rexall Orderlies, it would be of great benefit to the national welfare. Rexall Orderlies are prompt in action, pleasant to take and never gripe, can be used by men, women or children, and are just the thing for toning up sluggish livers.

We have the exclusive selling rights for this great laxative. Trial size, 10 cents.

HERE'S THE STATE LAW

Governing the Sale of Intoxicating Liquors in Dry Territory—Read and Become Wise.

Kentucky State Law in regard to the handling of intoxicating liquors between points in the state of Kentucky.

An act of the General Assembly of Kentucky taking effect June 15, 1914.
An act prohibiting the shipment of liquors for sale in local option territory and prohibiting persons from having in possession for sale liquors in that territory:
Be It Enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

Section 1.—Any person in any county, district, precinct, town or city in this state where the sale as beverage of vinous, malt, brewer, fermented, spirituous or intoxicating liquor is prohibited by law who has paid the United States internal revenue tax permitting the sale of any such liquors, shall be deemed to have paid such tax with the intention to violate the prohibitory laws of this state, or of such county, district, precinct, town or city, and it shall be unlawful for any such person to buy, bargain for, accept, receive, hold or possess any such liquors.

Provided, however, that none of the foregoing provisions of this section shall apply to any druggist authorized by the laws of this state to sell such liquors for medicinal, chemical, scientific and sacramental purposes, nor wholesale dealers in, or brewers or distillers engaged in the manufacture of such liquors in said prohibition territory. And it shall be unlawful for any person as first above mentioned in this section or his agents or any minor to buy for, sell, furnish or knowingly deliver, ship or in any manner transport to any such person as first above mentioned above in this section or his agents or any minor any of the liquors heretofore mentioned.

Section 2.—It shall be unlawful for any person to consign, ship or transport in any manner whatsoever, or deliver any of the liquors mentioned in Section 1 of this act to any person in any county, district, precinct, town or city where by law sale of such liquors are prohibited, or for any person residing in such prohibited territory to receive any such liquors unless there appears upon the outside of the package containing such liquors except such as may be received by distillers, brewers or wholesale liquor dealers, the following information: Name and address of the consignor, name and address of the consignee and the statement either that such liquors are for personal and family use of the consignee, or for medicinal, chemical, mechanical, scientific or sacramental purposes; any consignor accepting or receiving any package containing such liquors upon which appears a false statement, or any person consigning, shipping, transporting or delivering any such package, knowing that said statement appearing upon the outside thereof is false, shall be deemed guilty of violating the provisions of this act.

Section 3.—All railroads, express or other transportation companies within this state, or doing business in this state, are hereby required to keep at each local office in territory within which the sale of intoxicating liquors for beverage purposes is prohibited by law, a separate book in which shall be entered immediately upon receipt thereof, truthful statements of the amount and kind of liquor received, the name and address of the consignor and the name and address of the consignee, the purpose for which said liquor is intended to be used, as stated upon the outside of the package containing such liquor, the date when delivered, and by whom and to whom delivered, after which record shall be a blank space in which the consignee himself or his agent shall be required to sign his true name before such liquors are delivered to such consignee or his agent, which book shall be open to the public inspection at any time during the business hours of said company. Such book shall constitute prima facie evidence as to the facts therein stated, and be admissible as evidence in any court in this state. Any railroad, express or other transportation company or any employee or agent thereof, who fails to neglects or refuses to comply with the provisions of this section, or who makes or causes to be made any false entry in said book, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and for each offense shall be punished by a fine of not less than $50 nor more than $200, or imprisonment in the county jail not less than thirty days nor more than six months, or both fine and imprisonment in the discretion of the jury.

Section 4.—In any county, district, precinct, town or city in this state where the sale of any of the liquors mentioned in Section 1 is prohibited, it shall be unlawful for any person to keep, store or possess any such liquors in any room, building or structure, other than the private residence of such person and which is not used as a place of public resort, provided, that none of these provisions shall apply to druggists authorized to sell such liquors for medicinal, mechanical, chemical, scientific or sacramental purposes, nor apply to such liquors in the process of transportation, or in the possession of a common carrier, nor any wholesale dealer, brewer or distiller engaged in the manufacture of such liquors in said prohibition territory.

Section 5.—All liquors consigned, shipped, transported in any manner, received, held or possessed contrary to the provisions of this act, shall be deemed contraband.

Section 6.—The word "person" as used in this act shall be deemed to include any individual, firm, co-partnership, corporation or any combination of individuals.

Section 7.—Any person, who himself, or by his clerk, agent or employee, shall violate any of the provisions of this act except those of Section 3, shall for the first offense be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof, be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than $50 nor more than $200 and the costs of his prosecution, or to imprisonment in the county jail not less than three months or both such fine and imprisonment in the discretion of the court. For the second and every subsequent offense he shall upon conviction thereof in any court of competent jurisdiction, be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than $100 nor more than $500 or imprisonment in the county jail not less than sixty days nor more than six months or both fine and imprisonment in the discretion of the jury.

Section 8.—All acts and parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed.

BORN ON FEBRUARY 11

Was George Washington—Change In Calendars Made the Day Fall On the Twenty-second.

The birthday of George Washington will be celebrated a week from next Tuesday, February 22, and for more than a century the memorable event has been observed on that date, though the date on which the great American was born was February 11, 1732. Until he was 20 years old, Washington always observed February 11 as his natal day, and even after Washington had become the greatest and most famous American, February 11 was observed as his birthday, which sometimes was celebrated in different places both on the 11th and 22nd of the month.

Washington's diary for 1789 contains this note: "February 12 went with the family to ball in Alexandria given by the citizens of it and its vicinity in commemoration of my birthday." That birthday ball in Alexandria was held on Monday because the 11th fell on Sunday.

Washington's diary for 1799, the year of his death, contains this birth reference: "February 11 went up to Alexandria to the celebration of my birthday. Many maneuvers were performed by uniform corps, and an elegant ball and supper at night, February 12, returned home."

The change in Washington's birthday date was brought about by the change in the calendar. England in 1752 adopted the Gregorian, or reformed, calendar, which corrected the errors of the Julian calendar. The new calendar dropped ten days, and events which took place from February 12 to 21 inclusive were renumbered to have taken place on February 22. It would appear that there was no observance of Washington's birthday in the Continental army until 1781, and it is likely that that was the first observance of the anniversary by other persons than Washington and his family. On that occasion Rochambeau and a number of French and American officers celebrated the day with a dinner. On February 12, Rochambeau wrote to Washington: "Yesterday was the anniversary of your excellency's birthday. We have put off celebrating that holiday until today by reason of the Lord's Day, and we will celebrate it with the sole regret that your excellency be not a witness of the effusion of our hearts."

The first popular celebration of the February 22 date was at Newport, R. I., in 1784. The chronicles of the event say that the bells of the town were rung, the houses were decorated with flags and bunting and a brilliant entertainment was given. The Tammany Society of New York, in 1790, adopted a resolution that thereafter the 22nd of February be commemorated as the birthday of Washington.

"STILL WATERS"

Shows Marvelous Versatility of Marguerite Clark—Famous Players Make Striking Feature of Edith Delano's Work.

A circus, a canal and a canal boat form the settings for Marguerite Clark's beauty and talent in the Famous Players Film Company's latest contribution to the Paramount program, "Still Waters," which is the attraction at the Washington Theater tonight. "Still Waters," which is a rare combination of pastoral romance, rural comedy and thrilling drama, was written especially for Miss Clark by Edith Barnard Delano, the well known novelist. In it the diminutive star has one of the greatest opportunities of her screen career for the display of her remarkable versatility.

Having established a reputation as a superb comedienne and an unsurpassable coquette, Miss Clark merits unreserved recognition as an emotional actress by her splendid work in the role of Nesta, the little girl who is to all intents and purposes a prisoner on a canal boat, where she is kept by her grandfather in the hope of preventing her from running away to become a circus performer. That was the unhappy fate of Nesta's mother, and the old man lives in mortal terror lest the little girl should answer the same call.

The grandfather's fears are realized, but not until Nesta has met and fallen in love with a young doctor who lives near the canal. Her unfounded belief in the duplicity of the doctor and the sternness of her grandfather finally drive Nesta to run away and join the circus, where she soon finds herself the prey of the brutal ring-master. The part which the doctor plays in saving Nesta from the clutches of the ring-master and the discovery of the identity of the invalid Pierrette, whom Nesta supplants in the circus, bring the story to a thrilling and dramatic close.

An entire circus was leased for the presentation of those portions of the story which have to do with the circus, and the players spent three weeks at Easton, Pa., for the purpose of obtaining the proper atmosphere for that part of the action which transpires along the canal and on the old barge. The scenic beauty of the Delaware river and the Lehigh Valley canal, which parallels it at Easton, lend rare charm to the tale.

Harry La Pearl, one of the most famous clowns in the country, was specially engaged to appear in the circus scenes of this production in support of Miss Clark. Others in the cast are Robert Broderick, Robert Vaughn and Arthur Evers.

ALLEGED ROBBER CAUGHT.

(Manchester Signal.)

Earl Jones, cutter at the button factory, is spending the week in the local "cooler," charged with having robbed P. B. Hampton, the Kentucky hack driver, last Friday of something over $100 after the hack had crossed the river. Jones was arrested here Friday afternoon by Marshall Scott and placed in jail, and when the Kentucky authorities came for him he refused to go along without the required papers, hence he remains in jail until regulation papers can be secured. He was searched as soon as placed in jail, but a very small amount of money was found on him. It is rumored that in making purchases in town before his arrest he produced bills to pay same. It begins to look like Mr. Jones will have to do some tail squirming to get out of this if the rumors are true, but who knows.

Mr. R. W. Thomason of near Paris, bought Saturday from Mr. Eugene Hitchings of Scott county, the latter's farm containing about 216 acres of land, located near Payne's Depot, in Scott county. The price paid is said to have been around $38,000, or about $175 per acre.

Mr. A. F. Fleming of Wedonia, was a business visitor here Wednesday.

The best proof. Read it:
Mrs. Della Luneford, 328 E. Front St., Maysville, says: "I attribute kidney trouble to a strain. I had sharp, shooting pains through my kidneys and a dragging-down feeling through my hips. I had dull headaches and dizzy spells and often if I had not caught hold of something for support, I would have fallen. I was in that condition for several years, up one week and in bed the next. I finally began to notice symptoms of dropsy. My feet began to swell and my hands were at times the same way. Finally, I used Doan's Kidney Pills and they cured me."

OVER THREE YEARS LATER Mrs. Luneford said: "Doan's Kidney Pills completely and permanently cured me and I am glad to confirm all I said in their praise before."

DEMOCRATS LOOKING FOR HARD FIGHT.

St. Louis, February 11.—The Democrats are looking for a hard fight in the coming Presidential campaign, but Woodrow Wilson can beat any candidates the Republicans put up," declared William F. McCombs, chairman of the Democratic national committee in an interview, where the sub-committee on arrangements were perfecting for the national convention in June.

McCombs predicted that the Republicans and Progressive parties will be re-united and will support one candidate at the coming election.

"That will mean we will have to fight the combined strength of the two parties, but Wilson is strong enough to beat the combination," said McCombs.

"Wilson strengthened himself greatly by his tour of the west and Congress will back him up in his preparedness program."

"When we go into the convention to nominate a President the passage of the bill for national defense and the passage of a tariff commission bill will be history and with the fine record the party has already made in tariff revision, in the establishment of the federal reserve bank system and in other legislation we should have a record which will withstand any onslaught of the opposition."

Mr. McCombs asserted that Bryan's position one way or the other would have no effect on the next campaign.

AT ALL STAGES OF LIFE

The Woman's Medicine. Good for All Ages. Mrs. Harold Smith's Experience.

Clarksburg, W. Va.—"I am writing to tell you the good your medicine has always done me and I hope my letter may be the means of helping some other suffering woman. When I was 16 years old I caught cold and had suppression for two months. I got so weak I could scarcely drag myself up the stairs. I went to two doctors, then my mother got a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I took it. I never had any more trouble and got strong fast. Then I took it again before my little girl was born and it helped me a good deal and I give the Compound the credit for it. Then this spring I felt very badly again, but I took the Compound and have been well all summer. I cannot be grateful enough for your medicine." — Mrs. HAROLD M. SMITH, 470 Water Street, Clarksburg, W. Va.

For forty years it has been making women strong and well, and curing backache, nervousness, uterine and ovarian inflammation, weakness, displacements, irregularity and periodic pains.

HOME ROBBED DURING FIRE.

Manchester, O., February 11.—Soon after A. H. Holderness was sworn in as mayor Wednesday night his commission house was burned to the ground with a loss of $2,000. GARRISON RESIGNS War Minister Quits In Face of Inevitable Opposition Foreseen In Congress.

Washington, February 11.—Secretary Garrison resigned yesterday because President Wilson would not "irrevocably" support the continental army plan, and because he opposed the administration's program of setting a definite time for Philippine independence.

President Wilson accepted the resignation and has not selected a successor. The President himself probably will take personal charge of the administration's national defense plans in Congress.

Assistant Secretary Breckenridge also resigned as a mark of loyalty to his chief, whose views he shared, and both resignations take effect immediately.

It is known that one of Secretary Garrison's principal reasons for his conviction that only a federal continental army instead of a reorganized National Guard, could be the main military dependence of the nation was his belief that some day the United States may be called upon to defend the Monroe Doctrine, and in that event, he foresaw that the National Guard might not be available for use outside of the United States before a declaration of war.

The couple passed the night in jail after John Ramey, 25, charged he married the woman six years ago at Ashland, Ky. The prisoners insist they are innocent of the charges.

TITANIC MONUMENT NEARING COMPLETION.

Washington, February 11.—Work on the mammoth memorial to the men of the Titanic who went down in order that women and children might have a chance for their lives, is nearing completion, and will be placed in position in Potomac park in Washington, in the next few weeks.

The memorial will consist of a figure of a man standing with outstretched arms and will be of heroic size. The design is the work of Mrs. Harry Payne Whitney, formerly Miss Gertrude Vanderbilt of New York. She has supervised the cutting of the granite monument at the quarry at Quincy, Mass.

The monument will stand thirty-five feet high. The figure of the man will be thirteen feet high, and the distance from the end of one outstretched arm to the end of the other will be thirteen feet.

The memorial is the conception of the Titanic Memorial Association, which aims to honor the memory of the brave men who stood on the deck of the sinking liner and made no effort to save themselves, forfeiting their lives that women and children might live. It is a memorial of that famous tradition of the sea, "Women and children first," and a fitting emphasis of the words, "Greater love than this hath no man, that he lay down his life for his friend."

YOUNGEST APPLICANT.

(Winchester Sun.)

The youngest pupils to successfully pass the recent county examination from the common schools was Miss Bessie Gamboe, aged 11. She was from the Locknane school and has been under the instruction of Miss Margaret Noel for three terms.

Your Eyes Are Your Greatest Possession

next to life itself, so why continue to neglect them? You not only do your eyes an injustice, but your neglect of your eyes may be causing some reflex trouble, such as headache, etc., which more than likely can be corrected by the properly adjusted glasses. It is stated by an eminent physician that 90 per cent of the headaches, especially pains above the eyes, are caused by eye strain. We will examine your eyes and advise you if you can be helped by glasses. BROKEN LENSES DUPLICATED.
